

Rainbow's End Metal Detecting Association

Minutes for Meeting

July 11, 2018 (Start at 7:30 pm)

Meeting called to order

- 23 Attendees
- No guests

Minutes of June Meeting

- Motion to approve by Robin, seconded by Terry, all accepted

Treasurer Report:

- Janet away this month.

Membership

- See John if memberships not paid.

Other:

- Website issues have been resolved.
- Dave & Eugene's excellent adventure will be going around July 26 in the Barrie/Orillia area. Detecting in mainly small towns. They will take photos of their trip for a presentation in the fall.
- Friday the 13th this Friday in Dover. Would be great to hunt after.
- Dave P donated many auction books and anyone interested a small donation of .25 cents for the club. Books need to be in order as prices are in the second book.
- Dave P went to LaSalle and brought in a frame of his finds. Found 4 big pennies, wheat pennies, silver quarter, nickel and dime. But unfortunately got poison ivy! A lot of history in the park and best done in early spring or fall as the ground is very hard.

Break: 8:05 pm to 8:25 pm

Other:

- Festival season is coming up. Richard went to It's your Festival and found 16 dollars and much was in the ground.
- Joe and Kathy had a 700 pound bear close to their neighbourhood.
- Interest in having a fall hunt. Any suggestions? Bring up again in the August meeting. Gibson park near Upper Paradise is suggested. Lenny suggested to get together with the Niagara club to do a combined hunt. Lenny will contact.
- Lenny has a detector for sale $550. Technitics T2
